

06/11/2019

The continuing professional training 2019 of the accredited statutory auditors will take place in the offices of the 'Instituut van de Bedrijfsrevisoren' (IBR) / 'Institut des Réviseurs d'Entreprises' (IRE) on 6 (for the institutions for occupational retirement provision) and on 18 (for the undertakings for collective investment, the management companies of the undertakings for collective investment and the regulated real estate investment companies) December 2019.

This continuing professional training is first and foremost aimed at the accredited statutory auditors who are required to follow such professional training with sufficient frequency. Statutory auditors not accredited by the FSMA can also sign up, but will only be able to attend if sufficient places are available.
