

Structured products (Moratorium)

The Financial Services and Markets Authority (FSMA) calls upon the financial sector not to distribute to individual investors structured products that are considered particularly complex. Distributors that sign on to the moratorium commit themselves not to distribute structured products that do not fulfil the criteria that have been established. Distributors who participate in the moratorium will be placed on a list kept by the FSMA.

Questions on the moratorium: pro@fsma.be

Further information can be found in the following:

- Communication and annex

Accession by financial institutions

- Accession form
- List (French - Dutch) of the distributors that have signed on to the moratorium

Accession by intermediaries (from 15 September 2011):

- Accession form (French - Dutch)
- Scope and instructions for accession
- List of the financial intermediaries that have signed on to the moratorium (French or Dutch)

Source URL: <https://www.fsma.be/en/structured-products-moratorium>